Who are we?

Based in California, designed to provide travelers with products + souvenirs that make them feel good + remember their time at your business, we use nature to create essential oils, bug sprays, candles, travel wellness products + more. Our recipes are artisan made and our products are produced through a California-based distribution center that is FDA compliant, ISO compliant + GMP compliant. Our products are clinically backed and performance-driven. They are 100% natural and free from harmful ingredients like parabens and phthalates.

We have quick turn around time and fair consumer pricing. We sell mainly to wholesalers looking to resale. We pride ourselves in providing products that our wholesalers buy again and again. We can customize any product and can create custom labels to rebrand our product under your company's name. We also curate products by working together. We are known for our "Smell of" products where we work together to make a signature scent for your hotel, resort, spa, region or business that guests can take home with them. We are also known for coming to your area, taking fallen branches or trees and turning them into magnets or ornaments so your customers can take a piece of your area home with them to remember!

The Smelly Sasquatch

Have a Smelly Sasquatch sighting at your business.

Research shows, aside from tee shirts, hats, magnets + keychains with the name of the location tourists are visiting, local and handmade crafts and products are the second most popular items tourists purchase. This is because people value taking home a piece of the place they visited. We are not some corporation that just slaps a label on a candle for the town that it is in. Our products are hand curated, nontoxic, organic and natural. With over 15 years of experience in the industry + working with chemists with over 30 years of experience, we have the heart of a small business but capacity to fulfill regular mass, bulk orders while being a part of every step of the creation process. It is not rare to see us pulling over to the side of the road to fill up our car with fallen tree branches or be up late mixing new scent recipes. It is possible to ethically mass produce something made with love. By the way: we also do have tee shirts, stickers, hats, magnets + more + can customize these products with your company, city, National Park, or town's name.

About us

His background in brewing beer and love for the rocks and trees. Her background in essential oils and love for the plants + flowers. Their shared love and respect for nature + travel. The Smelly Sasquatch is what happens when a yoga teacher and rock climber fall in love.

Based in California, Shawna and John Bebbeling are a husband and wife team and owners of The Smelly Sasquatch, a 100% natural + organic, Sasquatch-inspired, essential oil + motivational tourist wellness product line.

It all started back in 2010. Once an anxious college professor medicated for anxiety + depression, Shawna found holistic health and it changed her life. Motivated to help people the same way she was helped, she became a yoga teacher + holistic health practitioner. In 2012 she opened a yoga studio + wellness school in San Diego, CA. Since then, with her passion for education+ helping people feel good in their mind and body, she has written a number of books + trainings and leads 12 internationally accredited certification programs including a 4 level aromatherapy program. In 2015, she got herself off anti-depressants after being on them for 7 years and doctors telling her she would "be on them for life." She used essential oils to slowly do it and hasn't looked back!

Inspired + motivated to empower others, she wanted to share this so she has searched all over for the purest essential oils. Once she found them, she started selling the oils at her yoga studio + teaching others how to use them. She then wrote a book on essential oils, "Talking To Plants + Trees."

In 2021 Shawna + John met. Love can inspire you to do even bigger things. Shawna started sharing her holistic practices and oils with John and he was impressed with how much it worked on his arthritis, chronic foot pain, digestive issues and more.

Together they invested in some properties in tourist areas in California, Yosemite being one of them.

They remember the first time they got out of the car when they got to Yosemite. Shawna took a deep breath and said, "I wish I could take this smell home."

Slowly after, The Smelly Sasquatch was born. They learned to distill essential oils from trees cut for fire prevention in the area and started selling their oils and candles in local gifts shops just hoping to give people a memory of the smell and feel of nature that Yosemite gives. Today, their line has largely expanded and they have created easy to use and effective oils for common mental and physical discomforts that tourists, travelers and all people feel. To say it is their passion is an understatement. The product line has grown and can be found throughout the USA + Canada.

Sustainable Packaging

The most inspiring part of being in nature is the awe that nature reminds us of. We only work with organic materials and use sustainable practices to create products that make people happy and FEEL GOOD. Our products are nontoxic and 100% natural + organic. All of our products have no more than 4 ingredients. We use only glass, bamboo, Kraft labels + natural materials for our bottling and labeling. We believe in providing high quality products that work with minimum impact on the environment + minimum waste.

Giving Back

We believe life is about helping each other. Each year, we donate essential oils + educational services to people in need to help them whether they are struggling physically, mentally or emotionally or they just need the reminder to "Believe in themselves." Your purchases help to fund this movement so we are so grateful for you + we thank you with free shipping on all essential oil orders.

Custom Scents + Labels

Science shows scent is tied to memory. Increase revenue while leaving your clients happy with products that connect them to the memory of the time spent at your business. Let's curate a signature scent for your resort so your guests always remember their time with you (and tell others + come back).

Together we will curate the perfect, organic scent that represents your hotel, spa, resort or brand. We use botanicals + scents native to the location of your hotel or resort or create a blend that is representational of the feel of your business. Gift the scent of your hotel or resort to your clients to remind guests of their time. Sell the scent as a spray or essential oil blend so they can take it with them when they leave + be transported back to their happy memories and time with you. Leave the scent as an amenity in their hotel room or spa bathrooms. We will curate the scent, bottles and labels to your exact brand + price point.

Your scent is completely unique to you. Mock ups + samples are available free of charge and we will edit it until we get it exactly how you like it.
