HAVE A SMELLY SASQUATCH SIGHTING AT YOUR BUSINESS.

Who are we?

Based in California, designed to provide people with products + souvenirs that make them feel good, we use nature to create essential oils, bug sprays, candles, wellness products + more. Our recipes are artisan made, and our products are produced through a California-based distributing center that is FDA compliant, ISO compliant + GMP compliant. Our products are clinically backed and performance-driven. They are 100% natural + free from harmful ingredients like parabens and phthalates.

We have a quick turn around time and fair consumer pricing. We sell in bulk to wholesalers looking to resale or large corporations, businesses, schools, residences + medical centers who want to provide wellness to their staff, clients, customers or patients. We pride ourselves in providing products that our customers buy again and again. We can customize any product and private label. We also curate products by working together to expertly create a scent or wellness product for you. With over 15 years of experience in the industry + working with chemists with over 30 years of experience, we have the heart of a small business but the capacity to fulfill regular mass, bulk orders while being a part of every step of the creation process.

The Smelly Sasquatch

About us

His background in brewing beer and love for the rocks and trees. Her background in essential oils and love for the plants + flowers. Their shared love and respect for nature + travel. The Smelly Sasquatch is what happens when a yoga teacher and rock climber fall in love. Based in California, Shawna and John Bebbeling are a husband and wife team and owners of The Smelly Sasquatch, a 100% natural + organic, Sasquatch-inspired, essential oil + motivational tourist wellness product line.

It all started back in 2010. Once an anxious college professor medicated for anxiety + depression, Shawna found holistic health and it changed her life. Motivated to help people the same way she was helped, she became a yoga teacher + holistic health practitioner. In 2012 she opened a yoga studio + wellness school in San Diego, CA. Since then, with her passion for education + helping people feel good in their mind and body, she has written a number of books + trainings and leads 12 internationally accredited certification programs including a 4 level aromatherapy program. In 2015, she got herself off anti-depressants after being on them for 7 years and doctors telling her she would "be on them for life." She used essential oils to slowly do it and hasn't looked back!

Inspired + motivated to empower others, she wanted to share this so she has searched all over for the purest essential oils. Once she found them, she started selling the oils at her yoga studio + teaching others how to use them. She then wrote a book on essential oils, "Talking To Plants + Trees."

In 2021 Shawna + John met. Love can inspire you to do even bigger things. Shawna started sharing her holistic practices and oils with John and he was impressed with how much it worked on his arthritis, chronic foot pain, digestive issues and more. Together they invested in some properties in tourist areas in California, Yosemite being one of them. They remember the first time they got out of the car when they got to Yosemite. Shawna took a deep breath and said, "I wish I could take this smell home." Slowly after, The Smelly Sasquatch was born. They learned to distill essential oils from trees cut for fire prevention in the area and started selling their oils and candles in local gifts shops just hoping to give people a memory of the smell and feel of nature that Yosemite gives. Today, their line has largely expanded and they have created easy to use and effective oils for common mental and physical discomforts that tourists, travelers and all people feel. To say it is their passion is an understatement. The product line has grown and can be found throughout the USA + Canada.

Sustainable Packaging

The most inspiring part of being in nature is the awe that nature reminds us of. We only work with organic materials and use sustainable practices to create products that make people happy and FEEL GOOD. Our products are nontoxic and 100% organic. All of our products have no more than 2-4 ingredients. We use only glass, bamboo, aluminum, Kraft labels + natural materials for our bottling and labeling. We believe in providing high quality products that work with minimum impact on the environment + minimum waste.

Giving Back

We believe life is about helping each other. Each year, we donate essential oils + educational services to people in need to help them whether they are struggling physically, mentally or emotionally or they just need the reminder to "Believe in themselves." Your purchases help to fund this movement so we are so grateful for you + we thank you with free shipping on all essential oil orders.

How to use us

The power of giving

Whether you are a corporation or business looking to provide free access to wellness through our effective + easy to use aromatherapy products or meditation app to your staff for free; a medical center or residency wanting to provide free alternative methods of health through aromatherapy + on demand classes; a school, sports team, luxury living center or some place else that just cares about gifting wellness to your clients, customers, team or consumers to show that you care about their well being, providing wellness as an amenity is the gift that keeps giving. Buying bulk provides an affordable way to gift.

The power of receiving

Increase revenue by selling our wellness line in your shop or business. Consumers have power and what we provide for consumers to purchase plays a large part in what becomes the norm for society. What you sell helps dictate what society knows, understands and wants. Be the change by offering mindful products that make people feel good.
